

HERCULES TO THE JOURNALISTS.

INFANTICIDE.

The Girl Reporter of 'The Times' Takes in a Batch of Physicians.

Several of Them Prove to Be More than Willing to Commit Abortion.

Some Ready and Anxious to Proceed with the Horrible Crime Without Any Delay.

Prominent Physicians Who Have Not the Stamina to Stand Up for What They Know to Be Right.

Among Them Drs. Knoll, Carr, Davis, Atwood, Tooker, and Sharpe.

The Black List Rapidly Growing Larger—A Corrocted Classification Up to Date.

What 'The Times' Started Out to Do and What It Hopes to Accomplish Through This Issue.

Letters Stating the Crusade Received from Nearly Every Reputable Physician in the City.

As may be seen by the columns of this issue today the inquiry which was set foot to discover as nearly as possible the extent of the practice of 'infanticide' or abortion in this city has borne so far good fruit.

testimony of the respectable physician from time to time, it could not shrink, nor did it intend that 'The Times' now to permit this matter to be used for any purpose other than the one for which it was intended.

Another object in view is an amendment to the state law relating to medical colleges, which will make legal the recognition of every honorable and well known doctor who has committed an offense of a criminal nature.

A number of the letters printed this morning call attention to the case of Dr. Etheridge, and many are inclined to blame 'The Times' for taking him from the list of those who were willing to recommend the girl to a place where no abortion might be committed.

Dr. Etheridge explained his position to the public in a letter which 'The Times' was inclined to give him the benefit of the doubt, and is yet, but it has no desire whatever to shield any man, and least of all a man occupying a position of high position as Dr. Etheridge.

The list up to date as before referred to is as follows:

- Physicians Who Would Commit Abortion. Name, Address. Dr. A. H. Knoll, 117 North La Salle street. Dr. C. H. Carr, 308 South La Salle street.
