Legislators Explore Mental Hospital Probe

By JOHN PETERSON
Of Our Topeka Bureau

TOPEKA — "Questionable areas" at Larned State Hospital, detailed in a Wichita Eagle series, should be investigated, Rep. Charles F. Laird, D-Topeka, said.

Laird said Friday he plans to explore the possibility of calling for a legislative investigation of conditions at the state mental hospital.

"I've already talked to some of the representatives and I will get together with some more and see if they want to launch an investigation," Laird said.

HE SAID he plans to work through Rep. Clyde Hill, R-Kansas, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee.

"They're throwing people in the isolation cells without any clothes and it gets pretty cold when it gets down to 20 below outside."

"It seems this Betty Wells (sister of the series who voluntarily committed herself to the hospital for eight days last month) has opened up a lot of questionable areas," he said.

"It sure is inhuman or cruel to treat these people by drugging them all day, putting them in cells without any clothes and chaining them to chairs," he added.

HE SAID IT is disturbing that in Kansas, frequently described as the psychiatric center of the nation, that "they would be treating people like this."

The Topeka Democrat said he plans to contact Dr. G. W. Getz, superintendent of the hospital for his assessment of the situation.

"I don't want to unjustly criticize," he said.

Rep. Albert Campbell, D-Larned, also has followed the series and he is following the hospital's own investigative efforts.

"When I checked last Monday, they (hospital officials) said they already have a committee working on it and I decided to wait and see what they came up with," Campbell said.

"MY EXPERIENCE with the people out there is that they are doing a pretty fair job with the money they have. But they are losing psychiatrists to outside influences because the state can't complete financially," he added.

Campbell said he planned to contact hospital officials this weekend to determine whether the in-house investigation has been completed.

"At this time, I see no need for a formal legislative investigation," the Larned Democrat said. "I understand Dr. Getz also is looking into some of the allegations."

Fugitive Holds Couple Hostage, Takes Coins, Guns

SHAWATHA, Kan. (UPI) — Brown County sheriff's deputies report a Nebraska fugitive broke into a farm home northwest of Shawatha Thursday night and held a couple hostage for several hours.

Deputies listed the fugitive as Robert Earl Fritz, 34, who escaped earlier Thursday from the Nebraska Reception Center at Lincoln.

Ruben Mellenbruch and his wife Ethel were not injured. Armed with a knife, Fritz threatened the couple before taking about $200 in silver coin, $50 in currency and two guns, deputies said. He drove away in the couple's four-door sedan.
