A STORY OF CHICAGO getting away from that; but their little

CHAPTER V.

him would not need to look very far in Packingtown—he had only to walk up the avenue and read the signs, or get that a street are to obtain full information. Altogether it was a great day; and tired as they were, Jurgackingtown—he had only to walk up the avenue and read the signs, or get that a street are to obtain full information. into a street car, to obtain full infor- ure about the room. They were going to mation as to pretty much everything mation as to pretty much everything a human creature could need. It was a human creature could need. It was everything settled, and a little spare money put by; and this was to be their need to be their home—that little room yonder would be the property of the property his health and happiness were provided for. Did the person wish to smoke? There was a little discourse It was about cigars, showing him exactly why light, the fixing up of this house. They Thomas Jefferson Five-Cent Per- had no money to spend for the pleasure fecto was the only cigar worthy of the name. Had he, on the other hand, smoked too much? Here was a remedy ing of these was a perpetual adventure for the smoking habit, twenty-five doses for Ona. It must always be done at for a quarter, and a cure absolutely night, so that Jurgis could go along; guaranteed in ten doses. Here also and even if it were only a pepper-cruit, was the beverage which would make or half a dozen glasses for ten cents, him think he was still drinking his us-that was enough for an expedition. On ual coffee poison, while in reality he Saturday night they came home with was having his body all made new by a great basketful of things, and spread them out on the table, while everyone In innumerable ways such as this, the traveler found that somebody had been busied to make smooth his paths through the world, and to let him know and tea, and crackers, and a can of lard liar population. One would be tenderly hammer and a pound of nails. These solicitous. "Is your wife pale?" it last were to be driven in the walls of nar population. One wife pale?" it last were to be driven in the walls of solicitous. "Is your wife pale?" it last were to be driven in the walls of wall inquire. "Is she discouraged, the kitchen and the bedrooms, to hang asked an acquaintance to read to her, He meant to take one side out of these and the delegate, who was an Irishman and told them that it related to the and told them that it related to the tomorrow, and put shelves in them, and only knew a few words of Lithuan-and told them that it related to the tomorrow, and put shelves in them, and only knew a few words of Lithuan-and told them that it related to the tomorrow, and put shelves in them, ian, lost his temper and began to furnishing of a house. "Feather your and make them into bureaus and places are the saw that to keep things for the hed record him. In the end Jurgis got furnishing of a house. Feather your nest," it ran—and went on to say that it could furnish all the necessary feathers for a four-room nest for the ludicers for a four-room nest for the ludicincluded feathers for quite so many limits the first temperature of the ludicincluded feathers for quite so many limits a union.

fund of money had sunk so low that they could hardly get to sleep at night, and so they fled to this as their deliv-erance. There was more agony and an-other paper for Teta Elzbieta to sign, and then one night when Jurgis same and then one night when Jurgis came thick slices of bread with lard between them—they could not afford butter—and home he was told the breathless tidings that the furniture had arrived and was some onions and a piece of cheese, and safely stowed in the house—a parlor set so they would tramp away to work. of four pieces, a bedroom set of three pieces, a dining-room table and four chairs, a toilet-set with beautiful pink roses painted all over it, an assort-ment of crockery, also with pink roses —and so on. One of the plates in the which took all he had in him, Jurgis had set had been found broken when they unpacked it, and Ona was going to the marveling at their speed and power as if they had been wonderful machines; it store the first thing in the morning to make them change it; also they had promised three sauce pans, and there had only two come, and did Jurgis think that they were trying to cheat them? The next day they went to the house; things in a different light, he got at and when the men came from work they ate a few hurried mouthfuls at panei the inside of them. The pace they set here, it was one that called for every Aniele's, and then set to work at the task of carrying their belongings to faculty of a man-from the instant the first steer fell till the sounding of the noon whistle, and again from half past twelve till Heaven only knew what hour The distance was in reality over two miles, but Jurgis made two trips that night, each time with a huge pile of mattresses and bedding for his hand or his eye or his brain. on his head, with bundles of clothing Jurgis saw how they managed it; there and bags and things tied up inside. were portions of the work which deterwould Anywhere else in Chicago he have stood a good chance of being ar mined the pace of the rest, and for these rested; but the policemen in Packingthey had picked men whom they paid town were apparently used to these inhigh wages, and whom they changed formal movings, and contented themfrequently. You might easily pick out It was hard for them to selves with a cursory examination now realize that the wonderful and then. It was quite wonderful to see these peace-makers, for they worked under the eye of the bosses, and they worked like men possessed. This was called "excelled men the cond" and if house was theirs to move how fine the house looked, with all the nouse was thems to move into whenever they chose. They spent all their time thinking about it, and what they were going to put into it. As their week with Panei it. As their week with Panei and Cousin Marija took Jurgis by the arm the fouse looked, with all the things in it, even by the dim light of a lamp: it was really home, and almost as exciting as the placard had described it. One was fairly dancing, and she and Cousin Marija took Jurgis by called "speeding up the gang," and if any man could not keep up with the pace, there were hundreds outside beg-Yet Jurgis did not mind it, he rather njoyed it. It saved him the necessity Aniele was up in three days, the arm and escorted him from room to they lost no time in getting room, sitting in each chair by turns, of flinging his arms about and fidgeting as he did in most work. He would laugh to himself as he ran down the line, darting a glance now and then at the man fright, and woke the baby and brought ahead of him. It was not the pleasanteverybody running. Altogether it was a est work one could think of, but it was necessary work; and what more had a man the right to ask, than a chance to do something useful, and to get good pay for doing it? be married as soon as they could get So Jurgis thought, and so he spoke.

in his bold, free way; very much to his surprise, he found that it had a tendency to get him into trouble. For the total get limit a job, provided that he were willing to pay one-third of his wages for it. Was he a boss? Antathe tendency to get him into trouble. For the total get limit a job, provided that he were willing to pay one-third of his wages for it. Was he a boss? Antathe tendency to get him a job, provided that he were willing to pay one-third of his wages for it. most of the men here took a fearfully different view of the thing. He was quite dismayed when he first began to Jurgis had made some friends by this find it out-that most of the men hated their work. It seemed strange-it was even terrible, when you came to find out the universality of the sentiment; but it was certainly the fact—they hated their They hated the bosses, and they hated the owners; they hated the whole place, the whole neighborhood-even the whole city, with an all inclusive hatred, bitter and fierce. Women and little children would fall to cursing about it; it was rotten, rotten as hell-everything was rotten. When Jurgis would ask them what they meant, they would begin to get suspicious, and content themselves with saying—"Never mind, you stay here and see for yourself."

One of the first problems that Jurgis ran upon was that of the unions. He ers for a four-room nest for the ludicrously small sum of seventy-five dollars. The particularly important thing about this offer was that only a small part of the money need be had at once—the rest one might pay a few dollars every month. Our friends had to have some furniture, there was no

Yet there have been known to be philosophers and plain men who swore by Malthus in the books, and would, nevertheless, subscribe to a relief fund in time This was the first time in his life of a famine. It was the same with Jurhat he had ever really worked, it seemed to Jurgis; it was the first time that he had ever had anything to do heart because of his poor old father, who was wandering somewhere in the yards begging for a chance to earn his bread. watched the men on the killing-floor, Old Antanas had been a worker ever since he was a child; he had run away from home when he was twelve, because somehow never occured to one to think of the flesh and blood side of it therenot until he actually got down into the pit and took off his coat. Then he saw for a month, if only you had made him understand what you wanted him to do in the meantime. And now here he was, worn out in soul and body, and with no more place in the world than a sick dog. He had his home, as it happened, and some one who would care for him if he twelve till Heaven only knew what hour in the late afternoon or evening, there was never one instant's rest for a man, for his hand or his eye or his head.

The case is a job; but his son could not help thinking, suppose this had not been the case. Antanas Rudkos had been into every building in Packingtown by this had stood mornings among the crowd of applicants till the very policemen had come to know his face and to tell him to go home and give it up. He had been likewise to all the stores and saloons for a mile about, begging for some little thing to do; and everywhere they had ordered him out, sometimes with curses, and not once even stopping to ask him

> So after all there was a crack in the fine structure of Jurgis' faith in things as they are. The crack was wide while Diedas Antanas was hunting a joband it was yet wider when he finally got with the tale that he had been approached by a man in one of the corridors of the pickle-rooms of Anderson's and asked what he would pay to get a He had not known what to make of this at first; but the man had gone on with matter-of-fact frankness to say that he could get him a job, provided

Jurgis had to say, without seeming at teen years, so she declared. Mary Denall surprised. They were common enough, he said, such cases of the graft. It she had been seduced, and had a little know that the plants were simply honeycombed with rottenness of that sortthe bosses grafted off the men, and they grafted off each other; and some day the superintendent would find out about the boss. Warming to the subject, Tamoszius went on to explain the situ- her off. had had no experience with unions, and ation; here was Anderson's, owned by a to a certain standard herself, and could had no experience with that he had to have it explained to him that the men were banded together for the the men were banded together for the does she drag herself about the house and find fault with everything? Why do you not tell her to try Dr. Lanahan's Life Preservers?" Another would be jocular in tone, slapping you on the back, so to speak. "Go and get the Goliath Bunion Cure." "Get a move on you'?" would chime in another. "It's easy, if you wear the Eureka Two-fifty "Two to hammer; and hurt her thumb, and you'?" would chime in another. "It's easy, if you wear the Eureka Two-fifty "Two to hammer as family distributed to the men were banded together for the money out of it as he could, and did there so long had not made any differpurpose of fighting for their rights. Another what they meant by underneath him, ranged in ranks and there was doubtful if she even the for both the forelady and their rights, a question in which he was their rights, a question in which he had, except the of an you!" would chime in another. "It's easy, if you wear the Eureka Two-fifty shoe."

Among these importunate signs was one that had caught the attention of the family by its pictures. It showed two very pretty little birds building themselves a home; and Marija had asked an acquaintance to read to her, the meant to take one side out of these cases, if you wear the Eureka Two-fifty easy, if you wear the Eureka Two-fifty easy, if you wear the Eureka Two-fifty only make his fellow workingmen lose only make his fellow workingmen against a dollar. And worse than there dling fourteen-pound cans all day. being no decency, there was not even any honesty. The reason for that? Who could say? It must have been old Anderson in the beginning, it was a heritage he had left to his son, along with his millions.

Since he had died they had dropchant. Since he had died they had dropped the custom of giving two pounds night before, and been in a light; meet hard hurled short in every forty; but they still did ing his enemy on the floor he had hurled ing his enemy on the good missing him. ten thousand things every day that his knife at him, and, missing him, would have landed them in state's prison slashed upon the abdomen of an inoffenif they had not been able to buy up the sive Polack, who had been shoveling law of the land. What were these guts with the same implement that Jurthings? Oh, Jurgis would find them out gis was now using. The cut had refused for himself, if he stayed there long enough. It was the men who had to do all the dirty jobs, and so there was no decaying them. deceiving them; and they caught the spirit of the place, and did like all the rest. Jurgis had come there, and from the smoke-rooms onto an elevator, thought he was going to make him-self useful, and rise and become a trucks were all of iron and become skilled man; but he would soon find out his error—for nobody rose in Packing-town by doing true work of any sort. You could lay that down for a rule— if you met a man who was rising in Packingtown, you met a knave. That man who had been sent to Jurgis' father by the boss, he would rise; the man who told tales and spied upon his fellows by the boss, he would rise; the man who told tales and spied upon his fellows would rise; but the man who minded his own business and did his work—why they would "speed him up" till they had worn him out, and then they would was said to them, the bosses were wont to kick about the place like so amply throw him into the gutter. simply throw him into the gutter.

to believe such things no, it could not Jonas' predecessor had been jammed he so. Tamoszius was simply another against the wall by one, and crushed in of the grumblers. He was a man who a horrible and nameless manner. spent all his time fiddling; and he would go to parties at night and not get home but none of them were so bad as some till sunrise, and so, of course, he did that Jurgis saw with his own eyes before not feel like work. Then, too, he was a puny little chap; and so he had been the very first day in his profession of left behind in the race, and that was shoveller of guts; which was the sharp why he was sore. And yet so many trick of the floor-bosses whenever there strange things kept coming to Jurgis'

He tried to persuade his father to have nothing to do with the offer, but is about to calve, or has just calved, is not fit for food. A good many of these was worn out, and all his courage was gone; he wanted a job, any sort of a job. So the next day he went and found the would have been an easy matter for would have been an easy matter for have a first buting free to all who write and Inclose a stamp, a prescription that will cure the lique of food. Also a recipe that will cure the top accompliance of habit, that can be given secretly in coffee. milk or food. Also a recipe that will cure the lique of food. Also a recipe that will cure the top accompliance of habit, that can be given secretly in coffee. milk or food. Also a recipe that will cure the top accompliance of the food. Also a recipe that will cure the top accompliance of habit, that can be given secretly. The distributing free to all who write and Inclose a stamp, a prescription that will cure the top accompliance of the packing houses—only request they make is that you do not set the recipe. But give free copies to your friends Address Kansas Anti-Liquor Society, Box DI141. Kansas City Mo.

oldest boy slept in the other room, having nothing but the very level floor to rest on for the present. Even so, however, they slept soundly—it was necessary for Teta Elzbieta to pound more than once on the door at a quarter past five every morning. She would have ready a great pot full of steaming black coffee, and oatmeal and bread and smoked sausages; and then she would fix them their dinner pails with more thick slices of bread with lard between the compared to the total action of the work in Anderson's cellars. He found that his wages were to be seventy-five clared, if they were good for anything clared, if they were good for anything that his wages were to be seventy-five days, and so he would have known books, and he would not have known to pronounce "laissez-faire;" but how to pronounce "laissez-faire;" but how to pronounce "laissez-faire;" but how to pronounce "laissez-faire;" but he had been round the world enough to know that a man has to shift for him self in it, and that if he gets the worst of it, there is nobody to listen to him holler.

Vet there have been known to be not the found that same day was put to work in Anderson's cellars. He found that his wages were to be seventy-five clared; if they would tell the day, and so he would have three dollars each week as the result of his where else. Jurgis had not studied the where the mould not have known to pronounce "laissez-faire;" but he had been round the world enough to his family for his board—he would not have were along with the others, and noder, it was the law that sort came along with the others, and roder, it was the law that sort came along with the others, and roder, it was the law that sort came along with the others, and roder, it was the law that sort came along with the others, and roder, it was the law that sort came along with the others, and roder, it was the law that sort came along with the others, and roder, it was the law that sort came along with the obos, and the boss would start up a content of the bound have three dollars in a place where there was never a dry with what came after two or spot to stand upon, and so he had to weeks. One day a man slipped and hurt spot to stand upon, and so he had to take nearly the whole of his first week's earnings to buy him a pair of heavy-soled boots. Antanas was a "squeedgie" man; he worked in one of the "pickle-rooms," going about all day with a love handled work which this injured man had ususit down for an instant or two now and > est man that God ever put on earth; and so Jurgis found it a striking confirmation of what the men all said, that got hurt. his father had been at work only two legs, and some with gored sides; there days before he came home as bitter as were some that had died, from what any of them, and cursing Anderson's cause no one could say; and they were with all the power of his soul. For they had set him to cleaning out the traps; and the family sat round and listened in wonder while he told them what that meant. It seemed that he was working in the room when the raised to the killing-floor, where the range working in the room when the was working in the room where the gang proceeded to handle them, with men prepared the beef for canning, and the beef had lain in vats full of chemicals, and men with great forks speared a matter of every day routine. It took a couple of hours to get them out of the be taken to the canning-room. When they had speared out all they could reach, they emptied the vat on the floor, and then with shovels scraped up the balance and dupmed it into the trucks, the floor. and dumped it into the truck; this floor | what that meant. was filthy with manure tracked in from the streets, and with spit, and the ac over again forever; and if that were not enough, there was a trap in the pipe, it. For one evening the old man came where all the scraps of meat and odds home in a great state of excitement, with the tale that he had been an every few days it was the old man's task to clean these out, and shovel them into one of the trucks with the rest!

>
> This was the experience of Antanas:

> and then there came also Jonas and Marija with tales to tell. Marija was working for one of the independent packers, and was quite beside herself and outrageous with triumph over the sums of money she was making as a fact, however, that those who labor the painter of cans. But one day she walked home with a pale-faced little woman who worked opposite to her, Jurgis had made some friends by this Jadwiga Marciukus by name, and Jadtime, and he sought one of them and asked what this meant. The friend who chanced to get her job. She had taken was named Tamoszius Kuszlejka, was a the place of an Irish woman who had sharp little man who folded skins on been working in that factory ever since the killing-floor, and he listened to what any one could remember, for over fifwas simply some boss who proposed to add a little to his income. After Jurgis had been there awhile he would world to love, and they had lived in a little room alone somewhere back of Halsted street, where the Irish were. Mary had had consumption, and all day long you might hear her coughing as she worked; of late she had been going the boss, and then he would graft off the boss. Warming to the subject, "forelady" had suddenly decided to turn The forelady had to come up

> > It was a striking circumstance that each member of the family had gotten his job by the misfortune of some other so, he is probably content with things his job by the misfortune of some other person; Jurgis found upon inquiry that on the very morning the boss had chosen him, a man had been carried out to his death not ten minutes earlier. One of the cattle-butchers had been drunk the night before, and been in a fight; meetand become a trucks were all of iron, and heavy, and they put about three-score hams on each his error—for nobody rose in Packing of them, a load of more than a quarter many dogs. Therefore, these trucks Jurgis went home with his head buz-ting. Yet he could not bring himself there was need to look sharp for them;

All of these were sinister incidents: long. One curious thing he had noticed, chanced to come a "slunk" calf. Any man who knows anything about butch-on the floor. One and her cousin dragged a mattress into the parlor and slept gis had no sympathy with such ideas as this—he could do the work himself, at night, and the three men and the oldest boy slept in the other room, having put the very level floor to clared if the work of the could do the work himself, and so could the rest of them, he delight the work line and so could the rest of them, he delight the work line and so could the rest of them, he delight the work line and so could the rest of them, he delight the work line and the could do the work himself, and the three men and the could do the work himself, and the could do the work himself, and the c going about all day with a long-handled mop, swabbing up the floor. Except that it was damp, it was not an unpleasant job, in summer; nor was it very hard work—if only he had been allowed to sit down for an instant on the sound of the government inspectors had all gone, and they are the sound of the government inspectors had all gone, and they are the sound of the government inspectors had all gone, and they are the sound of the government inspectors had all gone, and they are the sound of the government inspectors had all gone, and they are the sound of the property of the sound of and there were only a dozen or two of That day they had men on the floor. killed about four thousand cattle, and these cattle had come in freight trains, from far states, and some of them had There were some with broken

When he came home that night he was in a very sombre mood; having begun to cumulated dirt of years; yet they set Antanas with his mop slopping the "pickle" into a hole that connected with pickle" into a hole that connected with sink, where it was caught and used the regain forever; and if that were not sough there was an if the merchants, but of knaves and in the packers, and in America, telling him that he was in the employ, not of honest merchants, but of knaves and in the packers, and in America, telling him that he was in the employ, not of honest merchants, but of knaves and (To be continued.)

SERMONS ON SOCIALISM.

I. Labor.

In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat read.—Gen. 3:19. If this text means anything it means that he who eats should do enough useful labor to produce the equivalent of what he consumes. It is a remarkable most get the least of the wealth created by their labor, while those who enjoy the greater part of labor's products do the least toward producing them.

Evidence is everywhere that the just w above quoted is not enforced and the Gentiles." that those who evade that law are not regarded as immoral, but, to use a com non expression, are "our best people.

The eminently respectable gentleman tains his household on interest collected from his neighbors, is not eating bread in the sweat of his face; but is eating bread in the sweat of the faces of those whom necessity compels to pay him unwho, in defiance of bible precepts, mainwhom necessity compels to pay him unholy tribute. The landlord whose labor is limited to are slaves, but are p the collection of rents and the occasional eviction of a penniless renter, is sweating his bread out of his tenants. The employer, who graciously grants are."-Tolstoy. a dollar in wages to the worker who has produced two dollars' worth of merchandize for him, need not burden his own brow with perspiration, for his bread is the crystalized sweat distilled from the blood of the workers in his factory.

The trust magnate, who sets and what he buys, knows how to per spire vicariously and escape the labor that the farmer patiently performs.

Many have noted this sweating process and have wondered why it is that honest toil goes unrequited while others have millions of unearned wealth to lavish upon themselves, their horses and their dogs. They know from bitter experience that the gulf separating Dives from Lazarus is on the terrestrial as well as on the celestial map, and that in earth life Dives is on the comfortable It may be that the reader is a bene as they are. He may think it just that one should array himself in fine linen and dine sumptuously every day on foods and fabrics made by another. If so, he is doubly an infidel; for he is both unfaithful to a commandment fundamental to Christian ethics, and moreover unfaithful to his duty toward his

The Encyclopedia Britannica is responsible for the statement that, "The ethics of Socialism are identical with those of Christianity." Whether this be correct or otherwise, it is certain that the two are harmonious on the issues involved in the above text from Genesis.

Socialism teaches and seeks to realize a social and industrial system in which

If any would not work, neither should Paul's command to the Thessahe eat. lonians is identical with the demands of modern Socialism, which would secure to every worker the full social product of

In the establishment of the new social order it is not necessary that even the capitalist should perish, but that he hould conform to this great law of labor, remove his heel from the neck of the poor, cease exploitation and do his part in the world's work.

Socialism calls upon the workers of the world to unite and secure a majority the voters through the preaching of is just doctrine. It remains with the this just doctrine. voter to enforce the law of labor through Socialism or remain a party to its dis-honor through capitalism.—F. M. E.

Garfield is coming to Kansas to whitewash the Standard Oil corruptionists and public enemies. Money makes the mare go, you know.

WAR ON LIQUOR TRAFFIC.

The Kansas Anti-Liquor Society have adopt a new plan to fight the liquor traffic. They a distributing free to all who write and incl-distributing free to all who write and incl-distributing free to all who write and incl-

Indigestion?

I offer all Stomach Sufferers a Full Dollar's Worth of my Remedy. Free to Try.

I can afford to offer a full dollar's worth fres because mine is no ordinary remedy. Ordinary because mine is no ordinary remedy. Ordinary the causes treat symptoms. My remedy treats remedies treat symptoms. My remedy treats to the causes that produce the symptoms. Symptom causes that produce the symptoms. Symptom treatment must be kept up forever—as tom treatment must be kept up forever—as tom treatment must be kept up forever—as tom treatment must be stopped as soon as it has removed the cause, be stopped as soon as it has removed the cause, for that is always the end of trouble.

Stomach trouble is not really a sickness, but a Stomach trouble is not really a sickness, but a Stomach trouble is not really a sickness, but a symptom. It is a symptom that a certain set of symptom. It is a symptom that a certain set of symptom. It is a symptom that a certain set of symptom is always to the enable you to waik and talk and act—but the enable you to waik and talk and act—but the enable you for which your mind automatic stomach nerves over which your mind attended in the your mind and causes dyspepsia. How neglect may bring on kidney, heart and other troubles through symptom in the property of the provider of the property of the property of the property of the provider of the property of the prop three of the following-named tracts will be sent free to anyone sending his address to Geo. Gunnell, Beaver, Pa.: "The Garden of Eden," "The Kingdom of God Upon Earth," "The Seed of the Woman" and "The Times of

Dr. Shoop's Restorative.

"In other states the malevolence of the government is so masked that the people believe when they point to Russia that what happens in Russia can condition of slave slaves who do not con Our condition but yet it is better. realize more clearly

SO A WEEK AND EXPENSES to men with rigs to in-PERIAL HEG. CO., DEPT. 93 PARSONS, KANS. TABE a WORLD Expelled alive with head.

Booklet Free
BYRON FIELD & CO., Dept. A.A., 182 State St., Chicago, Ill.

Nine Nations

It was in truth a never-ending de-

Now Use Liquozone. Won't You Try It --- Free?

nations, are constant users of Liquotying. Yet it is a germicide so certain that we publish on every bottle an offer fiseases; some as a tonic. No medicine fiseases; some as a tonic. These diseases; some as a tonic. No medicine diseases; some as a tonic. No medicine was ever so widely employed. These users are everywhere; your neighbors and friends are among them. And half the people you meet—wherever you are—know someone whom Liquozone has eured.

There lies the great value of Liquozone, and have never tried it, please send us this couper. The lies the only way known to kill germs in the body without killing the germs in the body without killing the tissue too. Any drug that kills germs

There lies the great value of Liquozone, and have never tried it, please send us this couper. We will then mail you an order tissue too. Any drug that kills germs

If you need help, please ask some of these users what Liquozone does. Don't blindly take medicine for what medicine cannot do. Drugs never kill germs. For your own sake, ask about Liquotone; then let us buy you a full-size disease.

bottle to try. We Paid $100,000

For the American rights to Liquozone.

the cause of any germ disease.

Liquozone has, for more than twenty years, been the constant subject of sci- destroyed, the disease must end, and entific and chemical research. It is not forever. That is inevitable. made by compounding drugs, nor with Asthma Abscess—Anaemia alcohol. Its virtues are derived solely from gas-largely oxygen gas-by a process requiring immense apparatus and fourteens days' time. The result is a liquid that does what oxygen does. It is a nerve food and blood food—the most helpful thing in the world to you. Its Dysentery-Diarrh Dandrum-Dropsy

Millions of people, of nine different effects are exhilarating, vitalizing, puritissue, too. Any drug that kills germs

Germ Diseases.

These are the known germ diseases. We did this after testing the product All that medicine can do for these for two years, through physicians and troubles is to help Nature overcome the hospitals, after proving, in thousands of germs, and such results are indirect and different cases, that Liquozone destroys uncertain. Liquozone attacks the germs, wherever they are. And when the germs which cause a disease are

Hay Fever-Influenza
Lidner Diserses
La Grippe
Leucorfica
Liver Troubles
Malaria-Neuralgia
Many Heart Troubles
Files-Preumonia
Pleurisy-Quinsy
Eheumatism
Scrofula-Syphilis
Clip Diserses Scrorula-Syphilis Skin Diseases Stomach Troubles

Gororchea—Gleet Women's Growtheam of the All diseases that begin with fever—all infamunation—all catarh—all contagious diseases famunation—all the results of impure or poisoned blood.

—all the results of impure or poisoned blood.

—all the results of impure or poisoned blood.

tissue, too. Any drug that kills germs is a poison and cannot be taken internally. Every physician knows that medicine is almost helpless in any germ disease.

Discourse the taken internally out an order on a local druggist for a full size bottle, and we will pay the druggist ourselves for it. This is our free gift, made to convince you; to show you what Liquozone is, and what it can do. In justice to yourself, please accept it today, for it places you under no obligation whatever.

Liquozone costs 50c and $1.

CUT OUT THIS COUPON. for this offer may not appear again. Fill out the blanks and mail it to the Liquozone Company, 458-464 Wabash ave., Chicago.

I have never tried Liquozone, but if you will supply me a 50c bottle free I will take it,

Give full address-write plainly. Any physician or hospital not yet using Liquo-